

I purposely signed on to the no-call list to eliminate calls from solicitors of all kinds. Why should the banks, or any other group of commercial interests, be able to override MY decision? I'll call them when and if I want to. Jack Duffy